RE: United States v. Lofink, Criminal Action No. 08-01-GMS

Dear Chief Judge Sleet:

On June 19, 2008, the United States moved for a Preliminary Order of Forfeiture as to certain cash and property of the defendant. The government respectfully requests that the Court grant the Preliminary Order of Forfeiture at or before tomorrow's sentencing in this case.

Rule 32.2(b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure requires that the forfeiture "be made a part of the sentence and included in the judgment." Accordingly, the government respectfully requests that the following language be included in the Court's sentencing colloquy and on page six of the criminal judgment:

"Pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(a), the defendant shall forfeit to the United States the cash and property identified in the Preliminary Order of Forfeiture, which Order is incorporated by reference into the Criminal Judgment in this case."

Respectfully submitted,

COLM F. CONNOLLY
United States Attorney
